Angus Leaders Selected At Annual Meeting

The 2015 Wisconsin Angus Association Annual Meeting was held in conjunction with the Wisconsin Cattlemen's Winter Conference at the Wilderness Hotel and Golf Resort, Wisconsin Dells in late February.

Highlight of the Angus Association meeting was the presentation of Dr. Dan Moser, president of Angus Genetics, Inc and the American Angus Association director of performance programs. Slides regarding Dr. Dan Moser are available.

Austin Arndt, Wisconsin Cattlemen's Association president, addressed the group reviewing the statewide organization's work with youth and seed stock producers.

Views From Your President

Greetings,

Spring has arrived...although you wouldn't know it with the 15+ inches of snow parts of southwest Wisconsin was blessed to receive this past weekend.

Calves are hitting the ground and growing fast, and it is exciting to see the green grass beginning to grow. I would like to thank everyone who was able to attend the Annual Meeting held last February in conjunction with the Wisconsin Cattlemen's Convention at the Dells. Once again it was a huge success. We have already started thinking about next year's event so feel free to contact a

In Memory of Dr. Tom Howard

Angus breeder and veterinarian, Tom Howard died unexpectedly on Saturday, February 14 while working with a newborn Angus calf, doing what he loved best.

A native of Indiana, he earned his undergraduate degree and DVM at Purdue University in 1969. In 1974 he became a resident veterinarian at American Breeders Service, DeForest, WI. A year later he transferred to ABS Colorado and concurrently began graduate studies at Colorado State University.

He earned his PhD in 1981 and returned to ABS DeForest. In 1991, Tom left ABS and started his own consulting business as an internationally recognized expert in bovine reproduction. He also served as the Wisconsin State Veterinarian and worked in biotechnology prior to his retirement in 2007. Tom was an active member of the Wisconsin Veterinary Medical Association; he received the President's Award in 1996 and 2008, was named Veterinarian of the Year in 2008, and received a Meritorious Service Award in 2014.

He enjoyed retired life where his days usually started and ended in his favorite place, at his home in rural Poynette with his family and the herd of Angus cows they have developed. His commitment to the Angus breed lives on in those cows and in the individuals that he mentored throughout the U.S. and abroad.

Tom is survived by his wife Susan, children Ellen and Scott, brother Steve, and many cousins, nieces, and nephews. The family is planning a memorial celebration to be held in the spring. Memorial donations may be made in his name to the WVMA Foundation (<http://wvma.org>), where they will be used for veterinary education and the Food Armor™ program.

board member with ideas or suggestions on how we can make next year's even better.

Mark your calendars for April 18 as once again we will be hosting the annual Wisconsin Angus Futurity in Black River Falls, WI. The catalog is on its way to the printer now so look for it shortly in the mail and online. This year's offering is the best ever to date with many exciting lots to choose from. There will be something there for everyone. If you have any questions don't hesitate to give the sale committee, Cody Quam and Glenn Davis, a call. They will be happy to visit with you about this exciting event.

Show season is right around the corner as well. The Southwestern Wisconsin Angus Classic will be held at Lancaster again, Sunday, May 24. This is always a great event to kick off the season. Our State Show will once again be held in conjunction with the Wisconsin Livestock Breeders Show in Jefferson. Look for entry forms on the Wisconsin Angus Website.

I would also like to welcome the newly elected board members serving our great association. Chris Thorson, Courtney Jentz, Bart Mitchell, and the new representative from the SW Angus Association, Mark Schmidt. We look forward to another successful year with the additional help and support from these members.

As we start field work this spring I would like to remind everyone to stay safe and I look forward to seeing everyone at the sale on the 18th.

God Bless
Justin Diefenbach
President, WI Angus Association

Comments From Casey AAA Regional Manager

With a great spring sale season underway, it is clear that with the current state of the beef business it is a great time to be a part of the Angus breed. Prices have increased almost 20% over last year on registered Angus cattle this spring. Our association is always working to improve, and we are currently working on developing some new EPD's. We have incorporated feed intake into the equation for $F. This has also affected $B as well. Additionally, we are working on developing an EPD to help quantify hoof shape. We have started collecting foot score data and look to continue to develop this data. Visit www.angus.org for more information regarding these changes, and to stay up to date on Angus news.

Wisconsin Angus Bulls Excel In Midland Test

Five Angus breeders from Wisconsin sent bulls to the Midland Bull Test in September 2014 and all had lots make the final sale list. The Angus bulls sold on April 3 in Columbus, Mont. Marda Angus Farms, Lodi, Minndemann Farms, Sullivan, Hartzell Angus, Mineral Point, Schmidt Century Farm, West Bend and Strasburg Angus, Marshall are the producers representing Wisconsin.

With over 700 Angus bulls from across the country on test, competition is fierce for consignors to make the Leader's Board. The top five bulls for each division make the leaders board and three Wisconsin producers made the cut for the 2014-2015 test.

Marda Angus Farms placed first and fifth in the Green Tag Angus ADG Leaders Group 1. These bulls all had an actual birth weight under 85 pounds and a birth weight EPD under 1.8. A Marda bull also placed second in the White Tag Angus ADG Leaders Group 1. Bulls in this ground had an actual birth weight over 84 pounds and a birth weight EPD over 1.8.

Strassburg Angus also made the Leader's Board for the White Tag Angus ADG Leaders Group 1 with a bull placing fifth.

Hartzell Angus placed second in Green Tag Angus WDA Leaders Group 1. These bulls had an actual birth weight of under 85 pounds and an birth weight EPD under 1.9.

More information on the Midland Bull Test can be found online at www.midlandbulltest.com.

Quam Named President Of World Beef Expo

Cody Quam, was named president of the World Beef Expo Executive Board at the recent meeting. Bruce Thorson, Randolph, is the vice president; Andy Hornung, Cottage Grove, Treasurer; and Matt Hutchins, West Mansfield, Ohio, secretary. Kevin Doherty will serve at the Director of Finance.

At the March World Beef Expo Annual Meeting Matt Hutchins, West Mansfield, Ohio; Jim Renn, Hartland, WI; Greg Hipple, Solon, IA and Luciana Reese of Jerseyville, IL were elected as new Directors. Cody Quam, Lodi, was re-elected for a second term. Other broad members include Doug Fish and Shane Miller. Ex-Officios are Jeff Swenson and Brian Bolan.

The volunteer board plans and coordinates the World Beef Expo, a top notch cattle show held yearly in Wisconsin.

In September, people from around the country will visit Milwaukee, for one of the Midwest's largest cattle expositions -

World Beef Expo. People of all ages come to see, show, buy and sell cattle while enjoying a weekend of fun with friends and family! In 2014, World Beef Expo hosted 26 breed shows and exhibitors from 18 states displayed, exhibited or sold cattle during the three day event.

This year's World Beef Expo, which takes place September 25-27 at Wisconsin State Fair Park, will be the 23rd Anniversary Show.

They will be hosting an Angus ROV Show plus several national breed shows. In addition to the Open and Junior Shows, there will be a youth sweepstakes, a silent auction, educational seminars, a trade show and the Elite Cattle Sale featuring a variety of top quality cattle up for auction on Saturday afternoon. The Supreme Champion Cattle Drive will be held on Saturday night and is a spectacular event showcasing the best of the best.

For more information about World Beef Expo, call 920-479-0658 or visit their website at worldbeefexpo.com.

Auxiliary Corner

Greetings from the Auxiliary,

The annual meeting at the Wilderness Resort was well attended by members and Ambassadors. Beginning with a brunch we discussed 2014 events and finances, moving into plans for 2015 activities.

Our retiring Wisconsin Angus Queen, Allison Hawthorne, presented the new leather sash designed by her, Claire, and Kim Hawthorne. After 15 years of service the Auxiliary retired the old sash, offering it to the highest bidder in the WAA Silent Auction.

Scholarship committee reported that we had three bright young ladies apply for High School scholarships receiving a total of $2,250. Announcement and presentation was made during the WAA Annual Meeting. Please read about these talented juniors and their plans to further their education. Scholarships are made possible by the great bakers and buyers at our annual desert auction.

Ways and Means reported strong support of both the Auxiliary food stand during the State Sale in April and the Cheese and Sausage gift box sales in December. Both are managed under the direction of Kathy Miller and we give her a big thank you.

The activities committee was given a challenge at our fall meeting to develop a fun activity for membership recruitment.

They did not disappoint. Plans have been made to host a Painting and Wine party at a studio near East Troy on Saturday, May 16, with a social gathering at Henderson's afterward. While Angus is the preferred theme for the canvas, other "colors" are welcome. Watch for an email to sign up for a fun time or contact Becky Henderson, 262-514-4022 or crhenderson@tds.net.

Our Ambassadors are gearing up for another fun year helping at WAA and Auxiliary events. The whole group will be helping at the State Sale in April as well as during the show season. The committee has selected a new Queen for 2015. She is Kori Beisbier, daughter of Amy and Mark Beisbier, Reedsburg. Kori is also one of our scholarship recipients and is excited to be leading this group.

The last point of business was election of officers. All three officer positions were open for nomination. Resulting are President, Leslie Mindemann, Sullivan; Vice President, Becky Henderson, East Troy; Secretary/Treasurer, Val Gaffney, Barneveld.

The Wisconsin Angus Auxiliary is open to anyone wishing to promote the Angus breed and its' youth. Dues are $5 annual and $25 life membership. Contact Val Gaffney for information and application, 608-924-1029 or gfc@mhtc.net.

Three Juniors Earn Auxiliary Scholarships

The Wisconsin Angus Auxiliary award $2,250 in scholarships to three high school seniors during the Wisconsin Angus Association Annual Meeting.

Allison Hawthorne, daughter of Kim and Jim Hawthorne, Westby, received the first place scholarship. The current WJAA President sets her sights on a career in livestock genetics. The WJAA leader says being a member of the Junior Association helped her grow both personally and as an Angus breeder. Involvement in the organization included managing committees, running meetings, showmanship clinic and state show, and representing Wisconsin in a local, state, and national capacity as the past Wisconsin Angus Queen. "Leadership, hard work, responsibility, and commitment are all qualities required to be successful," says Hawthorne. "I enjoy advising and leading the younger members through activities and conferences and being a mentor."

At state and regional shows she has made a name for her family farm, Thornberry Angus, by earning numerous honors including Champion Showman, Wisconsin State Fair Reserve Supreme B & O Heifer and Reserve Champion Angus Bull. In addition to her Angus success, she is very involved in 4-H, FFA, sports, and band earning the honor of lead saxophone in WI FFA Honors Band.

This summer Hawthorne will compete with juniors across the country for $16,000 in scholarship money awarded by the American Angus Auxiliary. Hawthorne plans on attending Iowa State University this fall with a major in Genetics and a minor in Ag Journalism.

Alexis Timmel, daughter of Kory and Aric Mindemann, Johnson Creek, placed second in the scholarship competition.

Timmel attends Fort Atkinson High School, is a member of the National Honor Society, on the County MAP committee, 4-H President, and Vice President of Student Development in her FFA chapter.

She is a WJAA Director, past Vice Show Chair, Secretary, and helped develop the annual Showmanship Clinic. Timmel has exhibited cattle for the past six years recently earning both Supreme Steer and Supreme Heifer honors at her county fair. Show and showmanship honors have been received on state and national levels as well but she enjoys mentoring younger members most.

In addition to daily hands on cattle production, Timmel enjoys public speaking and judging as well, receiving top honors in WBE Youth Sweepstakes First Place and receiving a National Livestock Judging Team Silver Rating at this past fall FFA Convention.

With a passion for reading and writing, Timmel will pursue a major in Ag Journalism with a goal of becoming a publication editor one day.

Selected as 2015 Wisconsin Angus Queen, Kori Beisbier received the third place Wisconsin Angus Auxiliary Scholarship for High School graduates. The daughter of Amy and Mark

Beisbier, Reedsburg, she's worked as a past Angus Ambassador, WJAA member, helping with mini-LEAD, and participating in NJAS events. Raised in the swine industry on the family farm, Beisbier has gravitated toward Angus cattle. With a small herd of her own she has exhibited at local, state, and national levels. This experience has helped hone her livestock judging skills placing third individually at state and in the top five of state FFA Teams as well. Beisbier will be attending Iowa State this fall pursuing a major in Food Science and a minor in Meat Sciences, setting her sights on a Master of Business Administration before she is done.

"My experiences in owning cattle and working on my family's farm have helped prepare me for working in the industry," says Beisbier. Before she reaches Iowa she'll be busy managing the Auxiliary Ambassador program, working with the events and activities of the Association, and being a role model".

The Wisconsin Angus Auxiliary offers more than $5,000 in scholarships to High School seniors and students completing one year of post-secondary education. Applications are available on the Wisconsin Angus Association website, Auxiliary page and are due January 30.

After 15 years of service, the Auxiliary retired the old sash, offering it to the highest bidder in the WAA Silent Auction. Emma Berget, former Angus Ambassador was the winning bidder.

Greetings Everyone,

I am excited to be serving as your 2015 WJAA president and look forward to an exciting year for the members of the WI Junior Association. This year is going to be exciting with all of the upcoming events and the enthusiasm of a great group of board members.

The 2015 annual meeting was held in the Wisconsin Dells, I would like to take the time to recognize our Advisors of the Year, Jim and Kim Hawthorne, on behalf of the junior association, I would like to thank Jim and Kim for all of their help and commitment to the association.

I would also like to recognize Jessica Radcliffe for representing Wisconsin as part of the National Junior Angus Board. Jessica, who serves as your Leadership Director, has done a great job representing Wisconsin and the juniors across the U.S.

I am also glad to introduce our new 2015 Junior Board of Directors: VP/Treasurer: Claire Hawthorne, Secretary: Paige Gaffney, Show Chair: Suzanne Henning, Vice Show Chair: Sam Henderson, Fundraising: Derek Horstmeyer, Membership: Jack Henderson, Publicity: Kori Beisbier, Historian/Vice Fundraising: Hannah Tremaine, Directors at Large: Evan Henning and Grace Link. We have a great group of directors for the 2015 year and we are excited to start planning for this year's many events.

This year we are happy to have many new members; I encourage you to get involved and have fun, whether it is meeting new people at our meetings or in the show ring. There are many different opportunities available through our Wisconsin Junior Angus Association, whether it is the WJAA LEAD Conference, the Ambassador Program, or the Showmanship clinic; these experiences and the people you meet will be remembered throughout your adult life.

We do have a Facebook page; look on there for updates and meeting dates and times!

This is the year for Wisconsin Mini LEAD. It will be held in the Madison area April 10-12. This is fun for all ages; we plan on touring Camp Randall, dining at Prime Quarter Steak House and many more fun filled activities. If interesting in attending contact Jim Hawthorne by phone at (608)-293-0017

Our Wisconsin State Show will be held June 5-7, 2015 at the Jefferson County Fairgrounds, Jefferson, WI. It will be held in conjunction with the WLBA Spring Preview Show. I encourage everyone attend the annual junior meeting on Friday night; we will begin looking at signing up for contests and the theme ideas for the National Junior Angus Show which will be held July 13-18, 2015, in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

I look forward to a great year in the WJAA, and I encourage all the juniors to get involved and have fun! If you have any questions feel free to contact myself or any of the other junior board members. If you would like to join our association, contact our membership director Jack Henderson, he can be contacted at (262)-266-3799.

I look forward to a great year in the WJAA and look forward to seeing you at one of this year's events!

Sincerely,
Allison Hawthorne
2015 WJAA President

Hennings Earn Junior Bronze and Silver Awards

Suzanne and Evan Henning, Janesville, WI, have earned the National Junior Angus Association's (NJAA) Bronze and Silver awards, according to Jaclyn Upperman, education and events director of the American Angus Association® in Saint Joseph, Mo. Mike and Lora Henning are their parents.

Suzanne, 20, attends the University of Wisconsin-Platteville where she studies ag business and animal science. She is a member of the NJAA and the Wisconsin Junior Angus Association where she has served as president, director at large, ambassador and royalty.

She has participated in state, regional and national shows and showmanship contests. At the National Junior Angus Show (NJAS), Suzanne participated in livestock judging, team fitting and quiz bowl contests and the All-American Certified Angus Beef® Cook-Off. She was a participant in the mentoring program in 2014. She also participated in the Leaders Engaged in Angus Development (LEAD) conferences in 2013 and 2014.

Evan, 16, attends the Clinton High School and is a member of the NJAA and the Wisconsin Junior Angus Association where he has served as director at large and historian.

He also participates in local, state, regional and national shows and showmanship contests. At the National Junior Angus Show (NJAS), Evan participated in the livestock judging contest. He also participated in the Leaders Engaged in Angus Development (LEAD) conferences in 2013 and 2014.

The Bronze and Silver awards are the first two levels of the NJAA Recognition Program that began in 1972. Junior Angus breeders must apply for the awards, then meet point requirements in many areas of participation before receiving the honors. Applicants are evaluated in areas of junior Angus association activities and leadership, participation in showmanship, contests and shows, using performance testing to improve their herd and their progress in producing and merchandising Angus cattle.

National Show Set For July

The countdown has begun for the 2015 National Junior Angus Show (NJAS) in Tulsa, Okla. July 13-18 where Angus youth will compete, both inside and outside the showing, during the cattle shows, life-skills contests, cooking events and much more.

Sponsored by the Oklahoma Junior Angus Association, the 2015 NJAS is themed "Angus – Leading the Way." Activities and events will take place at the Built Ford Tough Complex at Expo Square in Tulsa, Okla., where more than 1,000 head of Angus cattle are expected to compete. May 15 is the ownership and early-entry deadline, and participants can submit entries online at www.angus.org/njaa.

The 48th Annual NJAS Showmanship Contest will also take place, where two junior Angus members from each state compete for the "Top Showman" title. To qualify, juniors must first be selected during state competition.

Visit the NJAA website for more information on contest deadlines or contact the Events and Education Department at 816-383-5100. A tentative schedule is available, including a summary of important deadlines. Please note there are no exceptions to any of the ownership and entry deadlines.

Gaffney Family Named Cattlemen of The Year

The Wisconsin Cattlemen/Women named Gaffney Family Cattle, Barneveld, their Cattlemen of the Year at their annual meeting. The Angus operation is just outside of Barneveld and includes Val and Scott, along with their children, Paige, Bree, Kelly, and Ty; and Scott's parents, Jerry and Nancy Gaffney.

The Gaffney family was recognized as an "example of what's right with agriculture and the beef industry."

Jerry and Nancy Gaffney and their family moved to Barneveld in 1976 from Nebraska. With them came 40 Horned Hereford cows. The Gaffney family added a commercial beef herd to the operation in the 1980s and the first Angus were purchased in 1995. The Gaffney Family Cattle is now made up of 180 registered Angus cows. The families operate 250 owned acres and 600 rented acres.

Gaffney Family Cattle are making their mark nationally with genetics from donor dam, R B Lady Standard 305-890.

Involved in the community, the family enjoys a number of activities including 4-H, FFA, Wisconsin Angus Association and Iowa County Cattlemen. The children are part of the Wisconsin Junior Angus Association activities where Paige serves as secretary and Scott and Val are advisors. Scott is recognized by many youth who exhibit beef at the Wisconsin State Fair as he has served as ringman for the Junior Beef Show.
